Tempranillo Cariñena, Spain			Sauvignon Blanc
Cariñena (300km inland from Barcelona) may not be well known, but wine making there has a long history. Recent investment, and those long warm summers, are producing tasty, soft, juicy wines			Vin de France
			Classic French Sauvignon Blanc. Gentle gooseberries and elderflower with delicious crisp acidity. Perfect with our Burren Smoked Salmon
Finca Florencia (2018)	€8.80	€38.00	Mezzecorona (2019)	€8.50	€36.00
Malbec Mendoza, Argentina			Forte Alta Pinot Grigio
Malbec's bramble fruit flavours and dark chocolate intensity are softened by spending 6 months in American oak barrels			Dolomites, Italy
			Pinot Grigio can be a bit bland. But Forte Alto's grapes work hard to ripen in their high altitude vineyards in the alpine foothills. It gives their wines just that bit extra flavour, attitude and interest

Merlot Cabernet Sauvignon Bordeaux Superior			Sauvignon Blanc
Soft but not flabby, tannins but not tannic, red fruits but not jam, hints of chocolate, toasty oak and pepper			Marlborough, New Zealand
			Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc has become one of Ireland's most popular wine styles. A glass of this Montford Estate version shows why

“No man was ever born into this world with such a passionate love of liquor as myself. It isn’t just that I love liquor for the taste of it, I love the plop of whiskey into a glass.

I love it. I love to listen to it. I love to see the cream on a pint. I love the first, powerful violent impact of a glass of whiskey when I throw it back in me, and it hits the mark below. I chase it then with a pint, and that’s even more beautiful still.”
